

Top Tips for First-Time Attendees

Making the Most of the Disability:IN Global Conference & Expo

- Carefully review the “Know Before You Go” information- Learn how to access and use the Conference App, discover accessibility information, FAQs, and more. This is one you'll want to pin to the top of your inbox!
- Build your schedule- review the agenda and identify which sessions and events you might want to attend. You can build your personal agenda by adding events to your schedule in the Conference App.
- Attend all plenary sessions – These high-energy sessions on today's trending topics feature senior leaders, innovators, and experts from around the globe who are shaping the future of business.
- Join breakout sessions – With dozens of deep-dive sessions led by leaders in accessibility, legal and compliance, marketing, technology, and talent, these sessions go deep on actionable insights and practical takeaways.
- Take advantage of the Expo – the Expo Hall is the perfect place to engage with other companies, customers, and clients. You'll see the latest offerings on disability inclusion and accessibility- and maybe pick up some swag while you're at it!
- Catch the Pitch Challenges – Watch NextGen Leaders and certified Disability Owned Business Enterprises pitch fresh ideas to corporate decision-makers during this high-energy showcase.
- Connect – The Disability:IN Conference is the place to be to connect with peers, customers, clients, vendors, and experts. Take full advantage of all the conference has to offer by attending Meet & Greets, meetings, evening events/celebrations, and using Meal and Coffee Breaks to connect with other attendees. Add new contacts on LinkedIn and follow up after the event.
- Take notes – As you attend sessions, jot down ideas, resources, or action items that could be applied or adapted within your organization.
- Stay in the know-
