

Become A Mentor For NextGen Leaders

YOUR EXPERIENCE CAN HELP BUILD SOMEONE'S FUTURE.

"The mentorship exchange has been incredibly rewarding, allowing me to share my personal and professional journey with my mentee. My mentee's fresh perspective and enthusiasm has inspired me and reminded me of the importance of continuous learning and growth."

Linda Z.

3,200+

NextGen Leaders Served Through the Program

350+

NextGen Leaders Each Year

145+

Companies Participating as Mentors Each Year

APPLY NOW

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 15, 2027

Think about the people who helped you navigate your professional life. A useful conversation, honest feedback, or an introduction can make a lasting difference.

As a Disability:IN NextGen mentor, you can offer that support to an emerging professional. Share what you've learned and support their professional growth while developing your own leadership skills.

- Strengthen your coaching and leadership skills
- Grow your professional network
- Help an emerging professional prepare for their future
- Connect with NextGen Leaders at the Disability:IN Global Conference & Expo.

COMMITMENT

The NextGen Leaders Program is a six-month virtual program. Occurring from January to June 2027. The estimated time commitment is about 3 hours per month, which includes mentoring conversations and monthly virtual learning sessions.

ELIGIBILITY FOR PARTICIPATION

Employees of Disability:IN corporate partner companies can participate at no additional program cost.

While NextGen Leaders span all interest areas and industries, business professionals in technology, finance, marketing, and business fields are highly encouraged to apply. Mentors will be selected based on their match to their NextGen Leaders.

For other questions or to learn more, contact the NextGen Leaders team at NextGen@DisabilityIN.org.

